

Two Half-Day Trainings Available to Choose From

Training facilitated by Deputy Chief Dottie Davis, B.S.; Ft Wayne Police Dept

Topics covered:

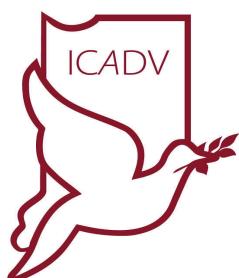

- Updated Laws
- Officer Liability
- Lethality Assessment

Sponsored by:

Miami Co. Domestic Violence Coalition

Miami Co. Prosecutor's Office Victim Advocate Program

Indiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence

Domestic Violence Legal Updates for Law Enforcement

Date: August 23, 2010

Time:

Registration: 8:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

Training: 8:15-Noon or 1:15-5:00p.m.

Training Location:

IN State Police Post # 16

1451 North Eel River Cemetery Rd.

Peru, Indiana 46970

Miami Co Prosecutor's Office Victim Advocate Program

25 North Broadway,
Peru, Indiana
46970

Brenda Kercher~ Victim
Advocate
Phone number: 765-472-3653
Email:
bkercher@miamicountyin.gov

Presenter: Dottie Davis

Dottie L. Davis, BS is a twenty-six year veteran of the Fort Wayne Police Department where she serves as the Deputy Chief of the Northeast Division of the city. During her career she has received numerous commendations, including two Meritorious Service Citations. Dottie graduated from Purdue University with honors receiving a Bachelor of Science, and certifications in Substance Abuse Counseling and Social Service. In March 2003 she graduated from the National FBI Academy in Quantico, VA. Since 1992, she has been a family violence trainer for the Indiana Criminal Justice Institute, and has trained thousands of law enforcement officers, prosecutors, advocates, and judges throughout the nation. The Indiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence (ICADV) named Dottie the 1998 Law Enforcement Officer of the Year, and in 2004 she was the recipient of the Harlene Bartlett award from the ICADV for her continued commitment to victims of family violence. She has spoken at numerous conferences throughout the country, including the National College of District Attorneys (NCDA) Conference on Domestic Violence from 1999 through 2006.

In 2006 she received the Stephen L. VonRiesen Lecturer of Merit Award from the NCDA. Davis has also lectured in Canada for the International Association of Women Police, The Ontario Provincial Police, and VCARS, a victim advocates group. In April 2000 she became involved in implementing the Crisis Intervention Team with the Fort Wayne Police Department to better serve individuals in a mental health crisis with dignity and respect. Due to this work, she has received several awards from the National Alliance for the Mentally Ill. She is the 2007 recipient of the Athena Award given by the Fort Wayne Chamber of Commerce. Davis serves as a Board member for several entities including the Governor's Commission for the Prevention and Treatment of Family Violence, Park Center, Inc., a community mental health facility, the Indiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence, the Fort Wayne Women's Bureau, the Fort Wayne YWCA, and as an advisor for the Battered Women's Justice Project in Minnesota. She is the President of Davis Corporate Training, Inc., a private consulting agency.

LETB Credits Available

Registration is FREE

RSVP By: Friday, August 20th, 2010
Caryn C Burton
Training Director
Indiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence
Email: cburton@violenceresource.org
Or
Fax: 317-917-3695

NAME: _____

AGENCY: _____

SESSION ATTENDING:

8:00-Noon _____

1:00-5:00 p.m. _____

PHONE #: _____

EMAIL: _____

LETBs _____

If you have any questions, contact Brenda Kercher @ 765-472-3653 or bkercher@miamicountyin.gov

Certificates of Completion will be provided to all attendees. Can be submitted for CEUs.

Lunch will be served from 12 noon—1:00 pm, between sessions.